

On the Road to Medical Home?

With Clinigence, you will never lose your way! Clinigence translates your patient data into a clear path towards the patient-centered medical home (PCMH) model. Like your vehicle's navigation system, our clinical business intelligence dashboard will map your current location and help you take the right steps forward.

The Clinigence collaborative clinical quality reporting technology will boost your PCMH accreditation, immediately adding over 20 points and supporting your NCQA score with many more. This may be all you need to guarantee or increase your recognition level. Beyond the PCMH model, Clinigence is your ally for better quality, better outcomes and better business.

Clinigence helps healthcare providers succeed in:

- Meaningful Use clinical quality reporting
- HEDIS, UDS, NCQA and any P4P report
- Accountable Care & Value-based payment
- PCMH recognition and transformation
- Population Health Management

Building the Nation's leading community dedicated to improving clinical quality through collaboration!
